HE KNEW THE SYMPTOMS.
A shrewd physician once hit upon a new way of detecting a liar. He placed his finger on a bonist who was asserting his innocence of an accusation, and said:
"Young man, you are lying! You have uttered one word of truth about this matter.
Your pulse is running as high as one hundred and forty, and no person enjoying good health is telling the truth would have as rapid pulsation as that."
The boy confessed his guilt.

There is more or less of an impression upon the minds of some people that statements as to the merits and effects of popular medicines should be received with a degree of allowance. That is to say, people are apt to think the proprietors of the articles often enlarge upon and exaggerate the facts in order to create a demand for what they have to sell. We are inclined to believe this is seldom the case, as the intelligent persons who own the medicines are aware that any sort of over-statement tends to injure their sales rather than to increase them. The public are sure to form a correct judgment as to the value of the advertised article, and any false claims for it are certain to be recognized.

as in all other cases.

There're the reader need not hesitate to accept true say announcements of which the following an example:—

"I, Thizra Daniels, of Wrafton, vt. Barostap do solemnly and sincerely declare, as follows:—

"I was always a strong, healthy woman up to early part of 1879, when I began to be troubled wth my liver and stomach. In July of that year I took a chill from sitting on some wet grass, and I brought on sciatica and rheumatism. I had dreadful pain in my hips and legs; it was like knives cutting through me. My appetite left me, and what little

When I had those in the waist and pains in the sides and between the shoulders. Finally I got so weak I had to bring home my eldest daughter for a week I could not look after the house and my four children for several months I was on this way. At first I decorated my child, rubbing my joints with a rabbit's trotter and mustard. Thereafter I got for a rabbit's trotter and he said my blood was poisoned. He blistered me and gave me medicine. I was under his care for five months, but I got weaker all the time and was so thin as a skeleton. The pain whilst in bed was so severe, I could scarcely bear it; and I turned and turned, but could not find an easy place. Sometimes I was lifted to the floor, and lay there for some time, but I could not get any rest. I became so bad I, and four bestand got a recommendation from the late Colonel Harding, of Upcott, and I attended at the dispensary at Barnstable four months, and then went as an indoor patient in the Barnstable Infirmary, and was treated by two doctors. They agreed I was blood-poisoned, and talked of performing an operation on my thigh, but concluded not to do it, saying I was too weak. They bled me again, and no relief from this, they applied leeches, but as fast as the leeches were put on they dropped off, poisoned by the blood. I was so low-spirited in the hospital, that I felt if I did not get home I should die soon, so they made arrangements to take me away. When I got into the open air my senses left me, and they thought gony, and sent my husband for our doctor. He said he would come, but it was of no use, as he could do no more than he had done. I lay for weeks, and was so bad that when people spoke to me I had no strength to reply. At this time my nephew Robert Daniele, of Pontypriid, sent us word to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, as it had worked wonderful cures in the district where he lived. So my husband went to Mr. Earley's, the grocer, High Street, Barnstaple, and bought a bottle. Before I had taken all of that bottle I could eat, and my food seemed to do me good. By degrees I got stronger and stronger, and after taking fourteen bottles I was strong and healthy. My flesh came on and all pains

A ROTHWELL CLOTHIER ROBBED IN LEBDS.—Last Wednesday, at the Leeds Town Hall, a labourer named Thomas Stoddale, of no fixed abode, was charged with having stolen two suits of clothes, the property of James Blakeley, clothier, of 93, Commercial Street, Rothwell. The evidence for the prosecution shewed that Mr. Blakeley came to Leeds on Monday last, and was present at a public auction sale. He there bought a quantity of goods, amongst other things being two boys' suits, which were wrapped in brown paper, and put in a bag. The prosecutor saw prisoner standing about as if on the look out for a job, and saw him take the suits from the Rivington

INTERVIEWING TO SHOWCASE.—At the County Court on Wednesday, Mr. H. P. Newsome, a solicitor of the town, said Mr. G. Naylor, for the payment of an account consorted under rather singular circumstances. It appears that a sack of flour had been sent to Mr. Naylor, by order of John Naylor, his son-in-law, in the employ of Mr. Newsome. On one of Mr. Newsome's assistants applying to Mr. Naylor for the money, he was told that he (Mr. Naylor), had never ordered it, and consequently he would not pay for it, alleging that his son-in-law had deceived him. Mr. Newsome's assistant appeared on behalf of his husband, and the Court ordered him to pay the account.

TEMPERANCE MISSION.—Under the management of the Rothwell Temperance Society's Committee, a temperance mission was commenced last night in the Temperance Hall, when an address was delivered by Mr. W. Pearson, agent of the Kingdom Alliance, the chair being occupied by H. H. Watkin. On Monday night, the mission will be continued, the address being addressed by Mr. W. B. Roberts, of Leeds. The proceedings, Master Nathan Sidebottom presiding.

TEA AND ENTERTAINMENT.—The members of the Rothwell Temperance Band held their annual meeting in the Town Hall, on Saturday last, there being a large attendance; the proceeds, which were to form a new in-strument fund, were consequently small. The Mechanics' Hall had been engaged for the evening, but the weather was so inclement that the entertainment which followed in the evening was the first of a series of entertainments given under the auspices of the Temperance Society during the winter season. Mr. W. H. L. was the only one present.

T. Middleton, tenor; Mr. J. T. Colley, baritone; W. Walker, ventriloquist; Mr. W. Belmont, Mr. F. Walker, rambourinist; Mr. W. Dutch vocalist, negro comedian, and pianist; and Mr. T. Pali accompanist. The programme was most entertaining, and the various performers were much appreciated and applauded.
